HENDERSON NAMED EMPLOYEE OF YEAR

Jefferson City, MO (February 3, 2016): Matt Sinnett, President/CEO of Midwest Independent Bank (MIB) announced the Employee of the Year for 2015 as Jason Henderson, Vice President of Compliance and Risk Management.

Jason is responsible for ensuring the bank is in full compliance with all banking laws and regulations, as well as, internal policies and procedures. He also serves as risk advisor to senior management and acts as the BSA Officer.

He started employment at Midwest Independent Bank (MIB) in June 2002 in the Loan Department. Jason transferred to the finance department at Midwest Independent Bancshares, Inc. in February 2007 to a newly created position. He completed his Certified Community Bank Compliance Officer Program in 2008.

Jason was been named Employee of the Quarter several times previously.

MIB is a “bankers’ bank” which provides a wide array of correspondent banking services to close to 550 financial institutions throughout the Midwest. Based in Jefferson City, MIB’s banking services are provided exclusively to financial institutions. The website for MIB is www.mibanc.com.
