CONFERENCE AGENDA

WEDNESDAY, AUG. 25

10:00–11:00 a.m. Exhibitor Set Up

12:00–1:00 p.m. Registration and First Time with Exhibitors

1:00–1:10 p.m. Welcome and Introductions

1:10–2:10 p.m. Brand Storytelling
Chukwukere Ekeh, EP + Co

Whether you realize it or not, your brand is already telling a story: The question is, is it worth engaging in? In a society where people are overwhelmed with options and inundated with marketing messages, many will simply choose the best story, that being the message that resonates with their needs and beliefs. This session will discuss the importance of a brand narrative both internally and externally for an organization. We'll explore several storytelling examples and dissect them to understand why they're powerful. And ultimately, we'll leave you with the tools and inspiration to better pursue the mission of being a financial provider of choice in the communities you serve.

2:10–2:25 p.m. Refreshment Break with Exhibitors

2:30–3:40 p.m. Social Media and Your Bank
Moderator - Ben Pankonin, Social Assurance
Social Media Panel:
Sandy Brown, State Nebraska Bank & Trust
Luanne Cundiff, First State Bank of St. Charles
Chukwukere Ekeh, EP + Co
Amanda Lee, First State Bank of Purdy

Learn how social media has been moving from brand awareness to necessary communication channels for many community banks. These first-person stories will help to highlight the strategies, value and opportunities present for social media. Learn from the front-lines of social media practitioners, strategists and content creators.

3:45–5:00 p.m. Sailing The Seven C's-Principles of Leadership
Mitch Holthus, Voice of the KC Chiefs

Communication, Communication 2.0, Connect, Creative, Courage, Conviction and Conduit. See how these Seven "C's" lead to remarkable results in the sports and business world.

5:00–7:30 p.m. Themed Reception in the Rooftop Bar of the Hotel

THURSDAY, AUG. 26

7:00–8:00 a.m. Continental Breakfast

8:00–9:00 a.m. The Currency of Trust: Activating Your Community
Ben Pankonin, Social Assurance

You responded when your communities faced crisis in their own backyards. Your team worked around the clock to do the right things when businesses and borrowers needed it the most. You invested in your community. But what has that earned you? The "currency" of trust you built in the first half of 2020 has a lasting value. What can you do now to create messaging that bridges the impact you have made with the heroes across your community?

9:05–10:05 a.m. The Accidental Banker: My Journey from Foster Care to CEO
Orvin Kimbrough, Midwest BankCentre

Orv Kimbrough is unlike any other bank CEO in the nation. Orv shares his journey from foster care in North St. Louis to CEO of the United Way of Greater St. Louis to the Chairman and CEO of St. Louis' second largest privately owned bank. From humble beginnings, he shares the defining moments that helped him become an inspiring leader who has boosted the life trajectory of tens of thousands of people through his purpose-driven work. Orv will share his perspective on the current economic climate and how community banks must evolve in order to remain the economic engines of Main Street and the people who live there.

10:05–10:20 a.m. Refreshment Break with Exhibitors

10:20–11:15 a.m. Top Ten Signs that Your Bank is Vulnerable to Fraud
Tom Danielson, CliftonLarsonAllen, LLP

Fraud happens. After every fraud, the victims realize that red flags were missed. This must see session will use examples of real-life thefts to explore the warning signs to look for and ways to minimize your exposure.

11:20 a.m.–12:15 p.m. Breaking the Myth of Work-Life Balance
Denise Purdy, Purdy Your Image, LLC

In this session, you will hear about a new approach to feeling balance personally and professionally.

12:15–1:30 p.m. Buffet Lunch

1:30–2:30 p.m. BREAKOUT SESSION I

What are We Seeing Now that the Economy is Starting to Open Up
Allen North, Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis

Hopefully, by the end of the summer, the economy will be largely open again. Allen will provide a brief banking update and discuss lessons learned and what the future may hold. As with the previous financial crisis, there will be practices that were rapidly adopted that make a lot of sense and should be continued, while others should be eliminated because they didn't work as well during the pandemic. Lastly, he'll cover the latest key considerations as bankers and regulators alike adjust to the new work environment and any permanent structural changes.

Serving Your Clients Global Needs: The Importance of a Robust International Offering
Stephen Kuhl, Western Union

It's time for community banks to think globally. In today's banking environment, domestic and international services are both critical functions for customers and could be a key competitive differentiator in an increasingly competitive industry. Discover strategies and best practices for using international payments for success.

Cybersecurity Basics for Everyone
Cole Holloway, MIB
Jon Booth, MIB

We will review current threats and trends in Cybersecurity and learn how to protect you and your family from becoming the next victim.

Trends & Best Practices in Community Bank M&A in the Midwest

Bert Purdy, BKD

Wyatt B. Jenkins, CPA, BKD

The speakers will share current M&A trends and discuss the framework of a transaction and highlight M&A best practices in this interactive session.

Bringing Community Banking to Life Through Community Events

Amanda Lee, First State Bank of Purdy

A strong bank and a strong community go hand-in-hand. This presentation tells the story of using collaborative events, ideas, and community involvement to transform how your current and future customers look at local music, food trucks, and the banking local experience.

Case Examples in Merchant Services and What Challenges Your Customers are Facing

Mike Higgins, Talus Pay Consulting

We will review the dynamic payments environment and the challenges businesses are facing with payment acceptance solutions. Actual case examples are reviewed to reinforce learning. Specific topics such as core fee categories businesses incur, key contractual terms, trends in fraud and PCI compliance will be covered. Attendees will gain a clear understanding of the challenges and issues their commercial customers are facing and will be able to provide direction to their customers.

4:45 p.m.

Exhibitor Tear Down

FRIDAY, AUG. 27

7:15–8:15 a.m.

Buffet Breakfast

8:30–9:30 a.m.

King of the Hill

Dave DeFazio, StrategyCorps

Right now, fintech disruptors are helping tech-savvy consumers reimagine banking tasks while enticing them with new places to keep their funds — instead of a checking account at your financial institution.

9:30–9:45 a.m.

Refreshment Break

9:45–10:15 a.m.

The Federal Reserve and Payments Modernization

Kim Robbins, Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City

As part of its mission as the nation's central bank, the Federal Reserve works to promote a safe, efficient, and accessible U.S. payments system. Learn how collaboration with the industry has been a key strategy for payments improvement, from work to advance payments security to efforts that foster the goal of nationwide reach for faster payments. Hear about the FedNow Service, an instant payment infrastructure under development by the Federal Reserve that when launched in 2023 will operate around the clock, 365 days a year.

10:20–11:45 a.m.
