HENDERSON NAMED EMPLOYEE OF YEAR

Jefferson City, MO (February 5, 2018): Matt Sinnett, President/CEO of Midwest Independent Bank (MIB) announced the Employee of the Year for 2017 as Jason Henderson, Vice President/Human Resources Officer.

Jason is responsible for the implementation and daily coordination of all aspects of the Human Resources Department which includes all human resources programs and processes designed to attract, retain, and motivate performing employees.

Jason started employment at Midwest Independent Bank (MIB) in June 2002 in the Loan Department. Jason transferred to the Finance Department at Midwest Independent Bancshares, Inc. in February 2007 to a newly created position as Risk Management and Compliance. He completed his Certified Community Bank Compliance Officer Program in 2008. In 2017 Jason transferred to the HR Department.

Jason was been named Employee of the Quarter several times previously, and was named Employee of the Year in 2015.

MIB is a “bankers’ bank” which provides a wide array of correspondent banking services to close to 525 financial institutions throughout the Midwest. Based in Jefferson City, MIB’s banking services are provided exclusively to financial institutions. The website for MIB is www.mibanc.com.
