JOE STEIL HIRED AS VP/RELATIONSHIP MANAGER

Jefferson City, MO (December 19, 2018): Matt Sinnett, President/CEO of Midwest Independent Bank (MIB) announces the recent hiring of Joe Steil. Steil has joined MIB as a Vice President/Relationship Manager.

In his new position, Joe’s focus will be new account development and servicing of existing MIB customers in Iowa with our other current relationship manager Stacy Snyder. “Joe is well known and respected by community bankers in our marketplace. We are glad he is now a part of the MIB family,” stated Sinnett.

Steil was most recently with the Lee County Economic Development Group. For close to 15 years he was the President/CEO for Keokuk Savings Bank and Trust Company in Iowa. Steil has 40+ years’ of banking experience within the industry and has worked with the Iowa Bankers Association on several committees and boards. He is a graduate from several American Bankers Association (ABA) Schools, including the ABA Retail Banking School, and ABA Graduate School of Commercial Lending. Steil also graduated from the Graduate School of Banking in Madison, Wisconsin. Steil received a Bachelor’s degree in Business Administration with an emphasis in Accounting from Briar Cliff College (now Briar Cliff University) in Sioux City.

MIB is a “bankers’ bank” which provides a wide array of correspondent banking services to over 500 financial institutions throughout the Midwest. Based in Jefferson City, MIB’s banking services are provided exclusively to financial institutions. The website for MIB is www.mibanc.com.
