MORFF NAMED EMPLOYEE OF QUARTER

Jefferson City, MO (November 13, 2019): Matt Sinnett, President/CEO of Midwest Independent Bank (MIB) announced the Employee of the Quarter for the first quarter of 2019 as Kim Morff Vice President/Board Secretary.

Kim began employment in the operations department of MIB in August 1987. Her title in 1995 was Vice President/Cashier when she left to start her own business. Kim returned to MIB in August 2007, as Assistant Vice President/Customer Relations Manager in the operations department. Kim was promoted to VP/Special Projects in 2011. She was moved to her current position as Board Secretary in 2015 and in 2017 she was put in charge of the Administration Department.

Kim is responsible for the coordination of special non-recurring and ongoing projects, which include the annual strategic planning process and management of the endorsed vendor relationships. She is responsible for maintaining company stock records and currently serves as the board secretary. Morff also acts as liaison between the president and department managers for the development and delivery of comprehensive communications strategies and plans, in support of the bank's goals.

MIB is a “bankers’ bank” which provides a wide array of correspondent banking services to approximately 500 financial institutions throughout the Midwest. Based in Jefferson City, MIB’s banking services are provided exclusively to financial institutions. The website for MIB is www.mibanc.com.
